Describe your new ministry initiative.

What is the compelling “why” behind your desire to pioneer this initiative?

Where will this ministry happen? When will this ministry launch?

How does this ministry specifically meet a need, fill a gap or strengthen existing work?

Who is your targeted audience? How and why were they chosen?

Describe how prayer is part of the formation of this initiative?

What is your process to make and grow disciples through this new ministry?

Who are your current and future ministry partners?

Tell us about the team designing and implementing this initiative.

What financial resources are you and your team seeking from this office to help you with this ministry initiative?

Who is the coach working with you on this new initiative?

Where do you envision this new ministry being in the next one to three years?

How will you know you are successful in this? What measurements (benchmarks) will you use to measure this success? Be as specific as possible. Are you willing to be held accountable for these benchmarks?
